Agenda Planning Calendar Review

Michael Applegarth reviewed the Agenda Planning Calendar.

Council Member Business

Brooke Christensen thanked all who participated in the 90th South UDOT project update last Saturday. She asked a question regarding Administrative Fines that Michael Applegarth and Shane Pace responded to.

Zach Robinson thanked all who attended the Town Hall Meeting last Saturday. He reported on the Jordan River Commission and Arts Guild meetings he attended.

Chris McCandless presented a booklet he received from Glasco. He commented on a housing grant program initiated by Ogden City, The Hale Center Theater board membership, the Central Wasatch Commission meeting, and a ticket management policy. He complimented Evelyn Everton on a "great" job at this year's Legislature Session.

Council Office Director's Report

Michael Applegarth reported that Steve Fairbanks would be participating in tonight's Council meeting via phone. He informed the Council that there was a "glitch" in the audio and video connection for this evening's meeting. He drew attention to the trial agenda procedure that was being used for tonight's agenda.

Mayor's Report

Mayor Bradburn stated that the Administration would be supportive in proposing a policy for tickets. He apologized to Zach Robinson for not being able to attend his Town Hall Meeting on Saturday. He was meeting with Congressman Curtis who also held a Town Hall Meeting on the same day.

He asked Evelyn Everton to present a final update on the Legislative Session.

Evelyn Everton thanked the Council for contacting their representatives on issues that were before the Legislature this year. She presented a final report on the bills that were passed.

CAO Report

Mayor Bradburn reported on the upcoming appointments to the Planning Commission.

Matt Huish reported that there were two Department Directors who were out for medical procedures. The schedule for the Sandy Amphitheater is being finalized. A Citizen Survey will be going out to residents this month. The on-line financial tool will be posted soon on social media. Council questions followed.

Legislative Report

Held during Mayor's report.

Citizen Comments

Steve Smith spoke in favor of the new agenda format. He recommended that the City Council refer to the lease agreement with Hale Center Theater regarding appointments to the board, and a suggested language change to Interlocal Agreements requiring any amendments to come back to the Council.

Steve Van Maren encouraged the Council to entertain a motion for adjournment for a caucus methods meeting in the Multi-Purpose room.

Citizen Comments were closed.
