

Construction Update

Proposed Public Feedback Plan

Naming the Newly Rebuilt Recreation Center

Proposed Plan

- Sandy residents will be invited to share their thoughts on the future name of the center via an online feedback form.
- Input gathered from the community will guide the official naming recommendation for the new facility.
- The final decision will be made by Sandy's elected officials after considering public input.

Proposed Outreach Channels

- City Website
- Social Media Campaign
- City Newsletter
- Email Updates (City and P&R)
- Press Release
- On-site Displays

Key Message: Early next year, Sandy City will open its newly rebuilt recreation center! Help us determine the final name that best represents our community's future.

Proposed Timeline

- January 30 – Alta Canyon Advisory Committee Meeting
- Feb 10 – City Council Meeting
- TBD – Launch Public Input Process
- March 11 – Public Input Process Concludes
- March 24 – City Council Meeting to approve recommendation of new name

We are inviting the community to help name Sandy's new recreation center, opening in January 2027.

Your feedback will be shared with the Mayor and City Council to help guide the naming recommendation.
