Non-voting Items

Agenda Planning Calendar Review & Council Office Director's Report

Mike Applegarth reviewed the Agenda Calendar and upcoming items. He excused Council Member Barker. Mr. Applegarth has been invited to speak at the Granicus National Summit in Washington D.C., May 14th & 15th.

Council Member Business

Brooke Christensen reported on the CDBG Committee meeting and review of applications.

Chris McCandless referenced an e-mail he received from a gentleman referencing corner lots. The gentleman would like to build a garage but cannot due to current city ordinances. Mr. McCandless would like to see the ordinance changed and move this initiative forward with the Administration.

Mr. Applegarth encouraged the proposal to be brought back in draft form to the Council for a vote and staff recommendations. Mike said he would work with James Sorensen.

Kris Nicholl mentioned that the Council is unable to access the link to Departmental Briefs when outside of the building.

Matt Huish said that he would come up with another way for the Council to access the briefs.

Zach Robinson turned the time over to students from Altara Elementary School who presented a sign thanking the City Council for supporting clean air & idle free zones. The Council invited the students to sit with them on the podium.

Chris McCandless presented Citizen Recognition Nominations for Brent Lange, leaving Hale Center Theater, Bob Bonar, retiring from Snowbird, and Wayne Neiderhauser, retiring Senate President. The City Council approved recognition for these individuals.

Mayor's Report

No Report.

CAO Report

Matt Huish invited Public Works Director Mike Gladbach and Police Captain Justin Chapman for updates.

Mike Gladbach reported on the success of snow removal from last Monday's snow storm and the standards that are followed.

Justin Chapman reported on two bomb threats at Jordan High School this past week.

Legislative Report

Evelyn Everton noted that the 2019 Legislative Session begins next week. She mentioned a few bills that the City would be following. She asked the City Council to let her know of any bills they would like monitored during the session.

Brooke Christensen expressed appreciation for Evelyn's help in putting together an appreciation bag for Sandy's Legislators.

Citizen Comments

Steve Van Maren noted that he would speak personally with Mike Gladbach regarding a snow removal issue in his neighborhood. He will be attending Jordan High School tomorrow and hoped it would be safe. He felt the Council could meet twice a month in order to provide better Citizen access to the Council. He expressed concern with the organization of the Mayor's Office and if the restructure coincides with Sandy City's Ordinances. He asked if anyone knows or would he be the one to find out.
