January 12 Letter from Reed Stallings

June 16 Letter from Reed Stallings

Mike Wilcox presented the staff report. Jeffrey Vitek, Boulder Ventures presented his project to the Council. Questions followed.

Kristin Coleman-Nicholl open this item for public comment.

1. Rick Carlson, 10576 South 465 East, spoke concerning the traffic. He stated that he likes the improvements but he feels that there is still too many units for the area.
2. Randy Osborne, 213 East 10403 South, asked the Council to consider the promises that were given to the residents in 2009. He feels the proposal is still too many units and would like to see less density.
3. Derik Sorenson, Utah Transit Authority, stated that it is his responsibility to dispose of this property and stated that he would like to see the property be developed. He feels that the proposal will meet the needs of the community.
4. Reed Stallings, 10661 South 540 East, stated that he is opposed to the proposal because he feels that there are too many units.
5. Amy Morris, 10344 Silver Willow, spoke against the development because she feels that the density and number of buildings are too high for this area.

Kristin Coleman-Nicholl closed the public comment for this item.

The Council then commented on the proposal.

A motion was made by Chris McCandless, seconded by Kristin Coleman-Nicholl, to approve the rezone located at approximately 300 East 10600 South from the R-1-20A and R-1-10 "Single-Family Residential Districts" to the PUD(8) "Planned Unit Development District"; allowing for a PUD subdivision creating approximately 150 housing units. The motion carried by the following vote:

- Yes: 4 - Kristin Coleman-Nicholl
Chris McCandless
Steve Fairbanks
Stephen P. Smith
- No: 3 - Scott Cowdell
Maren Barker
Linda Martinez Saville

Mike Wilcox then mentioned that there should be a second motion for this item which is to adopt the Ordinance. It was then pointed out that the Ordinance document was overlooked and was not included in the packet so it would need to come before the Council at a future date.
