To: City Council
From: Community Development Department
Subject: Board of Adjustment Reappointment

---

Request

Mayor Zoltanski is requesting that the City Council provide consent for the reappointment of Bruce Bryner to the Board of Adjustment. Mr. Bryner has diligently served on the Board over several terms and has he requested to continue serving in this capacity. The Mayor wholeheartedly supports his reappointment and is grateful for his many years of service on the Board.

Mr. Bryner has four decades of experience in various leadership roles in financial risk management and banking management after working for several financial institutions. Over the years he's served as a financial service manager with an extensive background in third party vendor and affiliate compliance, project management, lending, credit administration, as well as experience in marketing, and finance. He's developed excellent interpersonal, problem solving, and negotiation skills.

Mr. Bryner has been a valuable contributor and asset to the Board of Adjustment, and we enthusiastically support his appointment for another five year term ending on March 31, 2030.
