

Proclamation

A JOINT PROCLAMATION OF THE MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL OF SANDY CITY, UTAH HONORING
SALT LAKE COUNTY COUNCIL MEMBER JIM BRADLEY

WHEREAS, Council Member Jim Bradley has faithfully and diligently served Salt Lake County representing the interests of the Sandy City community to protect the pristine elements of the region for 28 years; and

WHEREAS, he has been a champion of open space and environment thereby enhancing communities that are sought out for the natural attributes they offer; and

WHEREAS, throughout his tenure, he has implemented an overlay zoning initiative to preserve the natural features of our mountains and canyons which include the foothills of Sandy City, the entrance to Little Cottonwood Canyon, and the 630-acre Dimple Dell Park; and

WHEREAS, he has tirelessly supported arts and culture in our community, promoting and implementing the Zoo, Arts, and Parks tax which serves as a significant revenue source for performing and visual arts in Sandy City; and

WHEREAS, he has worked to preserve land use of the county's premiere equestrian training and competition facility, the Bastian Agricultural Center, preserved the Little Cottonwood Canyon bridge line, and advocated for 4-H programs available to the youth; and

WHEREAS, he is a leader with a friendly, approachable nature who serves with kindness, yet acts as a fierce advocate for the under-represented, being unafraid to expend political capital for the good of the community;

NOW, THEREFORE, Sandy Mayor Monica Zoltanski, and Sandy City Council Chairman Aaron Dekeyzer, on behalf of the residents of Sandy, hereby proclaim our city's appreciation to Salt Lake County Council Member Jim Bradley for his excellent and admirable service to our community.

IT IS THEREFORE READ, SIGNED, AND ORDERED; this Proclamation shall take effect immediately upon signing, this Tuesday, January 21, 2025.

THE HONORABLE MONICA M. ZOLTANSKI, SANDY CITY MAYOR

THE HONORABLE AARON DEKEYZER, SANDY CITY COUNCIL CHAIRMAN

ATTEST: _____ City Recorder RECORDED this ____ day of _____, 2024.
