Non-voting Items

Agenda Planning Calendar Review & Council Office Director's Report

Mike Applegarth noted that the budget review schedule would be coming via the agenda planning calendar.

Council Member Business

Council Member Robinson thanked the community for working Project Protect mask creation.

Council Member Stroud thanked the Police Department for their educational video.

Council Member Zoltanski thanked all of the residents and participants of the first Virtual Town Hall meeting last week. She asked about the reopening of restroom facilities in both County and City parks.

Mayor's Report

Mayor Bradburn provided an operational update on COVID-19 response. The soft opening of City buildings occurred yesterday. Communication has happened to residents through the City website and City social media channels. Most services will occur over the next two weeks by appointment only.

CAO Report

CAO Matt Huish noted that next week the new City website will go live (May 16). He also noted that stringent cleaning guidelines make it difficult to reopen parks restroom, but the Parks Department is working to reopen them in a methodical way.
