

Sandra W Haak

801-523-0757 (home)

801-201-5331 (cell)

10953 S Bay Meadow Circle, Sandy UT 84092

SWHAAK@gmail.com

Objectives

1. Become an appointed member of the Sandy City Historic Preservation Committee in order to better understand and preserve the rich history of Sandy City, Utah.
2. Participate in the business of the committee.
3. Serve as a liaison between the Sandy City Historic Preservation Committee and the broader city and county community.

Education

1993	PhD	University of Utah (Nursing)
1976	MS	University of Utah (Nursing)
1971	BS	University of Utah (Nursing) Cum Laude

Employment

2014 –present	Retired
1982-present	Bookkeeper, Secretary, Quality Management; The Turning Center
2011- 2014	Director of Continuing Education, Utah Nurses Association
1978-2010	Faculty with advances in Clinical rank: Instructor, Assistant Professor, Associate Professor; University of Utah
1971-1978	Staff Nurse, House Supervisor, Clinical Nurse Specialist; University Hospital, Holy Cross Hospital

Experience Relevant to Committee Requested

1996-present	Resident of Sandy City
2016-present	Founding member of Dimple Dell Preservation Community, a grassroots group dedicated to preserving wildspace and historic structures in Dimple Dell Regional Park
2016-present	Regular attendee at Sandy City Council
2018-present	active member of Muir-Poulsen House subcommittee of Dimple Dell Preservation Community

Skills Relevant to Committee Requested

- Research: genealogic searches of families connected to historic houses, grant writing, research design, data collection, data analysis, report writing
- Broad knowledge and networking in the community
- Public speaking: informative, persuading, advocacy
- Evaluation of performance against set standards and criteria