Standing Reports

Agenda Planning Calendar Review & Council Office Director's Report

Dustin Fratto, Assistant Director, reminded the Council of the Agenda Planning meeting on Wednesday morning.

Council Member Business

Council Member Houseman acknowledged Teacher Appreciation Week and she thanked Ms. Stroud and educators for all they do to educate our children. She spoke about Governor Cox's Executive Order that implements water conservation measures at all state facilities and encourages local governments to take similar measures. She thanked the city staff for the communication efforts to educate the residents on water conservation and acknowledged all those who work so hard to ensure we have access to safe water.

Council Member Robinson thanked Ms. Stroud and acknowledged Teacher Appreciation Week. He thanked the Parks and Recreation Department for their efforts coordinating the Fiesta 5K event this past weekend. It was a great event and he encouraged the community to participate in future 5K runs. He also discussed the end game bill taking effect and the impact on the city's public meetings. He expressed a desire for the Council to continue its discussion regarding in-person City Council meetings.

Council Member Zoltanski recently spent the morning with the Public Works mechanics and staff and learned about their job and work environment. She spoke about the important work provided by this department in maintaining the City's fleet. She thanked Mayor Bradburn and the Public Works department for their time.

Council Member Stroud thanked the Fire Department for spending time with her this past weekend and for taking her on a ride-a-long. They provided a great deal of insight and information regarding the impact speed bumps have on emergency vehicles. She appreciated their time.

Mayor's Report

Mayor Bradburn spoke about the great job done by Public Works staff in the sign and welding shop. He mentioned the city ordinances and community education programs supporting water conservation efforts. He spoke about the impact of the End Game legislation on the city and businesses. He mentioned that the City is applying for a $20 million dollar grant. He wished Chief Severson and Chief Cline a Happy Birthday.

CAO Report

Matt Huish, CAO, mentioned the Google Fiber contract has been executed and he thanked City staff who were instrumental in working on the contract.

Council recessed 5:56 pm.

Council reconvened at 6:00 pm.
