Agenda Item Title:

City Council Office recommending the Council discuss short term rentals.

Presenter: Dustin Fratto

Description/Background:

This is a continuation of the Council short term rentals discussion from March 27, 2018.

Staff has made the necessary changes to the draft STR language based upon the direction given by the Council on March 27th. Staff recommends that the Council move this language forward through an official process that will include review by the Community Development Department, the Attorney's Office, and the Planning Commission where an initial public hearing will be held.

Further action to be taken:

Prior to adoption the attached STR draft language will need to go through an official process that will include further review by administrative staff, review by the Planning Commission, and review by the public through public hearings.

Recommended Action and/or Suggested Motion:

Motion directing staff to begin moving the attached draft STR language through the standard public process for code amendments which will include further review by administrative staff, initial review by the Planning Commission, and review by the public through the necessary public hearings.
