Public Hearing Notice: This item has been noticed to property owners within 500 feet of the subject area, on public websites, at public locations, and a sign posted on site.

Request

Matt Sneyd, with The Muve Group (applicant), is requesting a change of zone district for a property located at 166 E 10600 S. The property is currently owned by Mountain Side Baptist Church, and they have authorized the Muve Group to submit this application on their behalf. The request is to rezone the property from the R-1-40(A) (Single-Family Residential District with animals rights) Zone to the R-1-10 (Single-Family Residential District) Zone (see Exhibit “A” for Application Materials).

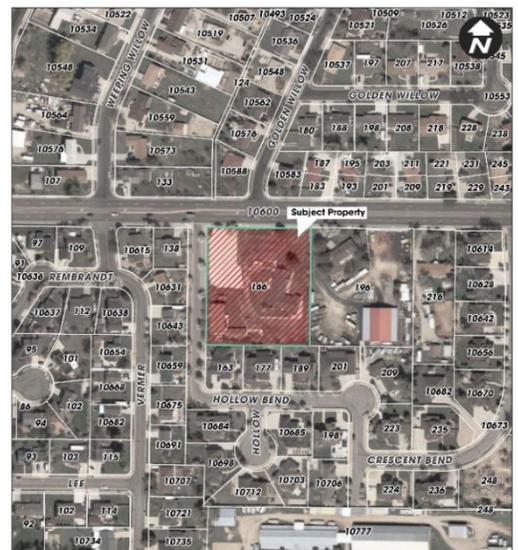

Background

The subject property, one parcel addressed as 166 E. 10600 S., is approximately 1.94 acres in area. The property includes an existing church building and a caretaker house. The property was annexed into the City as part of a larger area in 1979. It is currently zoned R-1-40(A). A house built in the 1970’s was converted to a church in 1989 with an approved site plan application. A caretaker house appears to have been built in 1996.

The application is requesting a zone change to the R-1-10 Zone (Single-Family Residential District). According to the concept plan, the applicant proposes to keep the existing church building and subdivide the property to add three residential lots.

The zoning designation (and existing land use) of the surrounding properties are as follows (see also Exhibit “C” for an area zoning map):

- North: R-1-20A & R-2-10 (single-family residential & twin homes)
- East: R-1-40(A) (single-family residential)
- South: R-1-10 (single-family residential)
- West: R-1-10 (single-family residential)

Public Notice and Outreach

This item was noticed to all property owners within 500 feet of the proposal (see Exhibit “B”) and posted to the property (see Exhibit “E”). The city also issued notice of the public hearing for the proposed rezone on public websites, mailed notice to affected entities and posted in three public locations at least 10 days prior to the Planning Commission public hearing in accordance with the Land Development Code Sec. 21-36-1 and the Utah State Code § 10-9a-205.

Staff held a virtual neighborhood meeting via Zoom on February 19, 2026. Residents within 500 feet of the proposed site were notified by mail. Other than staff and the applicant, six people attended the meeting. A summary of the meeting is attached (see Exhibit “D”).

Facts and Findings

- The zoning designation on the property is currently the R-1-40(A) Zone. The application is requesting a rezone to the R-1-10 Zone. The R-1-10 Zone is a single-family residential zone that requires minimum lot sizes of 10,000 square feet.
- The applicant is proposing to keep an existing church structure to continue to be used for religious purposes and to subdivide the property to create three residential lots of at least 10,000 square feet and one lot for the existing church building of approximately 48,460 square feet.
- “Religious or cultural activity” is a conditional use in both the R-1-40(A) and R-1-10 Zones. A conditional use was approved in 1988 for the existing church building.
- General Plan (Pace of Progress: Sandy City General Plan 2050) analysis:
 - The subject property is designated as being in the Low Density Neighborhood (LN) future land use category on the future land use map with a Transition Corridor-Light (TC-L) designation along 10600 S. The LN category is intended to consist “primarily of single-family residential areas (up to six dwelling units per acre) focused on sustaining a high quality of life through well-maintained infrastructure, housing, open space, schools, and limited non-commercial service/institutional areas.” (Chapter 7.1, page T20) The TC-L indicates a potential for “missing middle housing types” along the corridor of up to 10 dwelling units per acre.
 - The subject property is not located in a designated station area plan or a neighborhood activity center.
 - Applicable goals, objectives, policies, and recommendations include:
 - Livability: Neighborhoods and Housing
 - Policy: Sidewalks and trails form complete pedestrian networks and are comfortable for users
 - Goal: Sandy’s neighborhoods in transition take advantage of opportunities and minimize negative impacts
 - Policy: Infill development will be consistent with the surrounding area based on average lot size, average setbacks, average heights, and average lot coverage
 - Goal: Newly developed housing for all households is in vibrant, attainable, and livable neighborhoods

Land Use

- Objective: Sandy’s Future Land Use Map includes opportunities for the development of diverse housing types
- Objective: Ensure that all planning applications are consistent with the General Plan and Future Land Use Map

Conclusions

- The requested zone district is consistent with General Plan goals, objectives, policies, and the Future Land Use Map.
- A zone change is a legislative item that requires the Planning Commission to make a recommendation to the City Council, after having held a public hearing, with the City Council making the final decision.
- If this rezone application is approved, additional permits and applications, such as a subdivision, modified site plan, and building permits, would need to be submitted and approved.

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to formally request a zone change for the property located at 166 E 10600 South, Sandy, Utah, consisting of approximately 1.94 acres. The property is currently zoned R-1-40, and I am requesting that the entire parcel be rezoned to R-1-10.

Rezoning this property to R-1-10 is consistent with Sandy City's General Plan and long-range planning objectives for efficient land use and appropriately scaled light residential development. The subject property is located in a developed urban neighborhood, and the existing R-1-40 zoning does not reflect the current character or function of the area. R-1-40 zoning is typically associated with agricultural or very low-density uses, which no longer make sense in this location.

The surrounding area is predominantly zoned R-1-10, with several nearby properties, including parcels directly north across the street, zoned for even higher residential densities (R-2-10). Rezoning the property to R-1-10 would align it with the prevailing zoning pattern while preserving compatibility with the existing neighborhood's development, scale, and character.

According to the city's historical records for the property, most prior development inquiries favored a higher-density townhouse approach. We believe our proposed zoning and plan are more consistent with the existing neighborhood character, more likely to be accepted by surrounding residents, and better aligned with the city's long-term vision while creating the least amount of disruption.

The property currently contains a church building as well as an existing single-family home located on the southwest corner of the parcel. Under the current zoning, the existing home cannot be separated from the larger parcel and church building. This makes the property far too expensive for the average homebuyer and effectively eliminates any realistic opportunity for individual homeownership. Rezoning to R-1-10 would allow the home to be placed on its own lot, creating a viable and more affordable ownership opportunity where one does not currently exist.

More broadly, the requested zone change would allow residential land that is currently underutilized and unusable solely due to zoning constraints to be developed in a manner that matches the surrounding neighborhood. There is a very limited supply of developable land in east Salt Lake County in general, and this rezone would help make better use of an infill property within an already established urban area.

The church building and its associated parking will remain on the property for the time being. Once the property is rezoned to R-1-10, the site would be eligible for future redevelopment. Removal of the existing building and parking lot would allow for subdivision into additional R-1-10 single-family residential lots, subject to all applicable approvals. This zoning would integrate well with our future concept plan should the church or either of the two eastern neighbors ever sell, helping to further a more cohesive and compatible neighborhood structure.

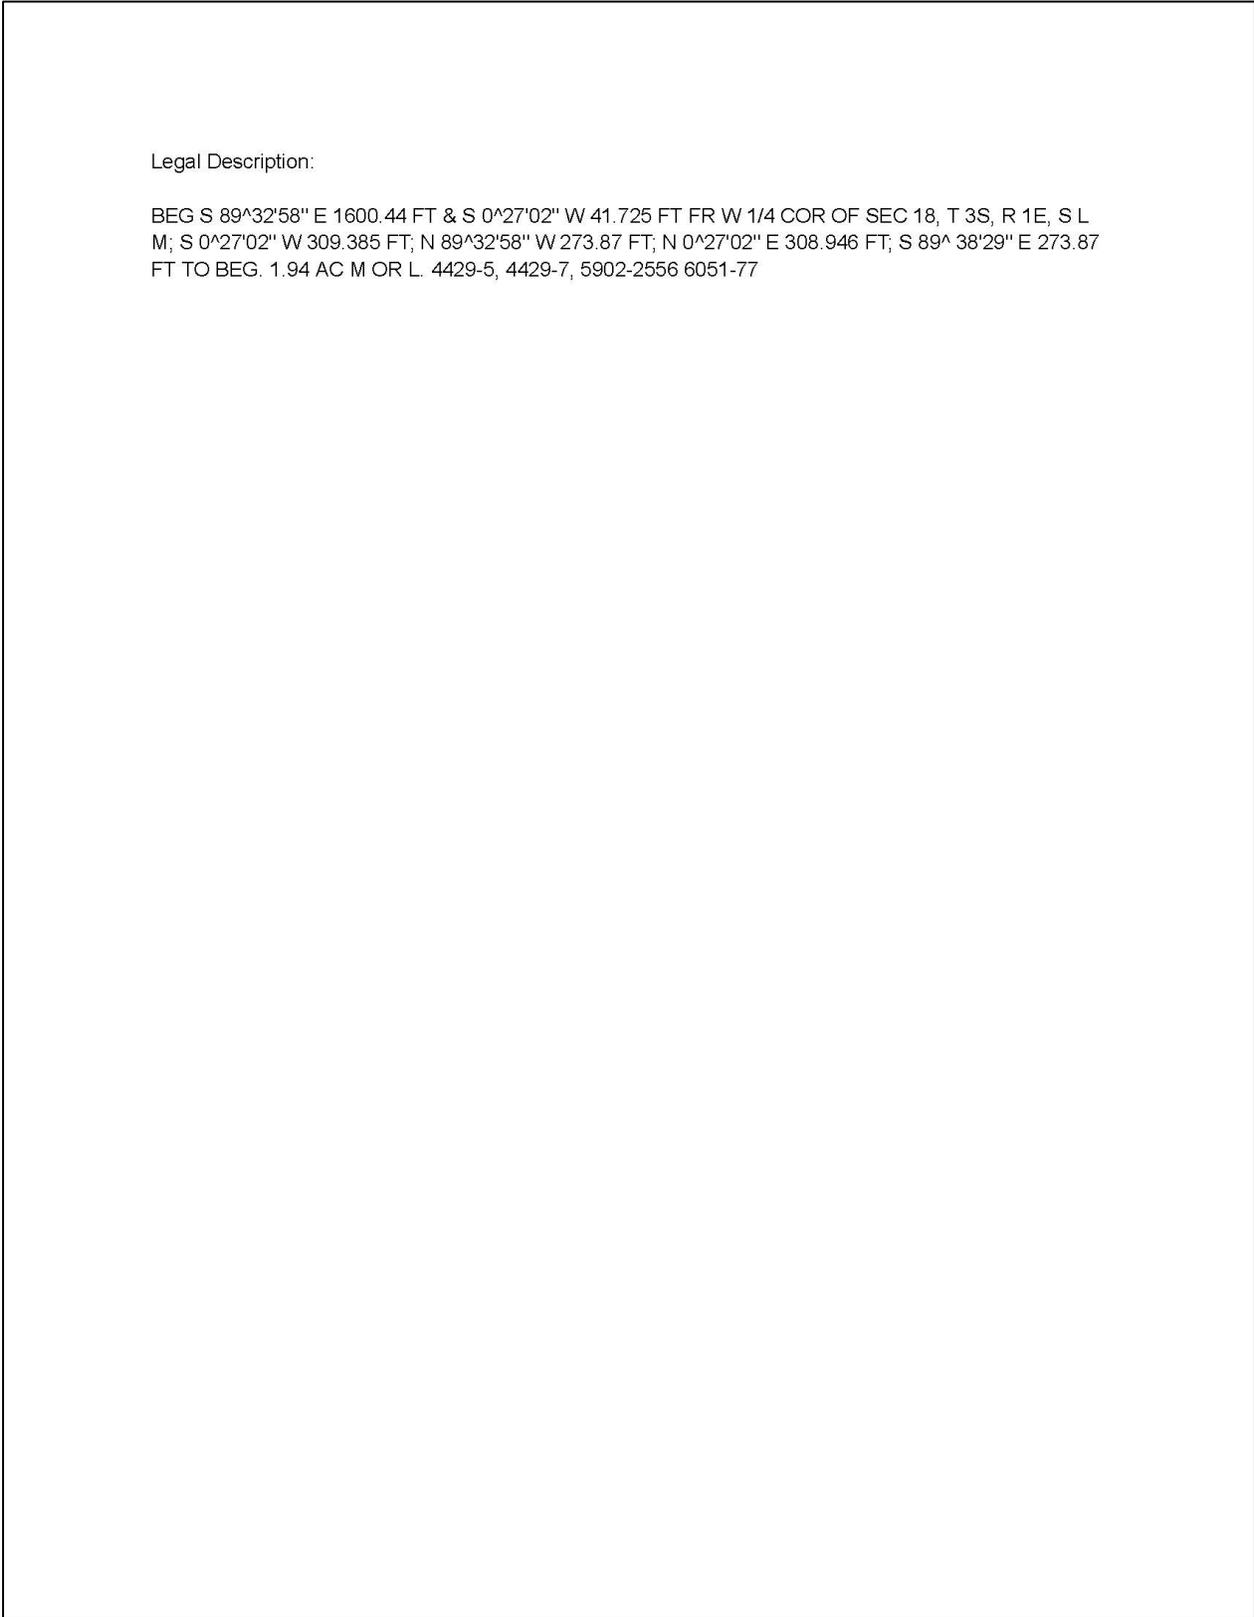

Exhibit "A"

This request represents a logical and modest adjustment to existing zoning that reflects current land use, surrounding development patterns, and adopted City planning policies. Approval of this zone change would bring the property into conformance with Sandy City's General Plan while allowing for reasonable and compatible residential use of the land.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Matt Sneyd
